

WORKSHOP “SABANA”

SUSTAINABLE ALGAE BIOREFINERY FOR AGRICULTURE AND AQUACULTURE

University of Almería

November 5th, 2021, from 9:30 a 13:00 h (CET).

Meeting room at Governing Building

Registration link: : <https://forms.gle/WBG4Pn91W6srqeSh9>

9:00 – 9:10	Welcome and Introduction to the event D. Diego Valera, Vice-rector of Research at the University of Almeria
9:10 – 9:40	Invited lecture: Bottlenecks to production of microalgae Prof. Yusuf Chisti, Massey University, New Zealand
9:40 – 10:10	Invited lecture: Microalgae based Foods in Europe, challenges and opportunities Dr. Carlos Unamunzaga, Phytoplankton Marino, Spain
10:10 – 10:40	Overview of SABANA project: Most relevant advances Prof. F. Gabriel Acien. University of Almeria, Spain
10:40 – 11:10	Coffee break
11:10 – 11:40	Microalgae related processes for wastewater treatment Dr Arbib Zouhayr, FCC AQUALIA, Spain
11:40 – 12:10	Agriculture-related applications of microalgae Dr. Joaquín Pozo, Biorizon Biotech S.L., Spain
12:10 – 12:40	Aquaculture related applications of microalgae Dr. Katia Parati, Spallanzani Institute, Italy
12:40 – 13:00	Conclusions and future trends Prof. F. Gabriel Acien. University of Almeria, Spain

“SUSTAINABLE ALGAE BIOREFINERY FOR AGRICULTURE AND AQUACULTURE”

This project has received funding from the European Union’s Horizon 2020 Research and Innovation program under the Grant Agreement No. 727874